October Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month

October 15th specifically is World Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day. People around the world participate in the International Wave of Light by lighting a candle at 7PM [local time] to honor all babies who have died too soon. Keep your candle lit for at least one hour to create a continuous "wave of light" across all time zones and the entire world.

With that in mind, please pray for Mike and Kelly Faschingbauer and their son Emmett. Kelly is pregnant with their 2nd child. Unfortunately, the baby was diagnosed with Trisomy 18 which creates an extra chromosome in the unborn child. This causes death either within the womb or shortly after the birth of the child. Kelly will have a C-Section on Nov. 8th. Please keep the family in prayer.

Mes de octubre de concientización sobre la pérdida de bebés y embarazos

El 15 de octubre es específicamente el Día Mundial del Recuerdo del Embarazo y la Pérdida Infantil. Personas de todo el mundo participan en la Ola Internacional de Luz encendiendo una vela a las 7 p.m. [hora local] para honrar a todos los bebés que han muerto demasiado pronto. Mantenga su vela encendida durante al menos una hora para crear una "ola de luz" continua en todas las zonas horarias y en todo el mundo.

Con eso en mente, oren por Mike y Kelly Faschingbauer y su hijo Emmett. Kelly está embarazada de su segundo hijo. Desafortunadamente, al bebé se le diagnosticó trisomía 18, que crea un cromosoma adicional en el feto. Esto causa la muerte dentro del útero o poco después del nacimiento del niño. Kelly tendrá una cesárea el 8 de noviembre. Por favor mantenga a la familia en oración.
