Common Horizon

I am fortunate to be part of a small, wonderful publication called Common Horizon, a hybrid book/magazine that explores the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching. Each issue focuses deeply on a single theme, such as Call to Family, Community, and Participation most recently.

▲ In each issue, among the essays, poetry, art, and reflections by a variety of authors, I do an interview with a person who exemplifies the issue's theme...and in the last two issues, you can find some familiar faces! I was blessed to interview our own Lennie Mosley for Vol. 2 Issue 1: Life and Dignity of the Human Person, and I did a different type of interview for Vol. 2 Issue 2 and featured several St. Francis parents, including Sharveta Parker, Garrett Schoonover, and Carl Carby.

None of the content truly ages, so I encourage you to check out any issue with a theme that resonates with you., for example, Vol. 1 Issue 7: Care for Creation. Issues from Volume 1 are discounted, which is a more comfortable price point for many of us. Please feel free to reach out to let me know what you think...or if you'd be interested in writing for Common Horizon, too!

St. Francis of Assisi has been helping Habitat for Humanity build houses in the Midtown and Harambee neighborhoods for the past several years.

Habitat for Humanity is looking to recruit volunteers to help continue this mission. No prior experience in building and construction is necessary as Habitat for Humanity has professionals on-site who will teach, coach and manage the process.

Volunteers needed on Saturdays and occasionally weekdays. If you are interested in learning more about ways in which you can help please contact Dean Roder at dean.roder@outlook.com.

The Homeowner for the Sr. Thea Bowman Catholic House (the Habitat house built by Catholic parish volunteers) is ready! Danielle and her family will begin occupancy sometime in April .

Archbishop ListECKI will provide a blessing at the house on Friday, April 21 at 2:00. Anyone from the parish is welcome to attend the blessing at 3283 North 5th Street.
