The Druml Family is a historic family in St. Francis Parish dating back to the early 1900's. The family descendants continue to return to St. Francis for many of their sacramental celebrations.

On Thursday, July 20, three new members of the Druml family were baptized: Riley Connor, Nora Vargas, and Jack Druml. We congratulate them and their parents! On the same day, Grace Druml and Keegan O'Connor were married in St. Francis Church. Our heartfelt congratulations to them in their married life!

On July 22, Leo Rojas [second from the right] professed his First Vows in the Capuchin Order. Leo volunteered at St. Francis last year when he was a postulant. He was greatly loved for his visits to homebound people. We wish Leo the very best in his Capuchin life. [Pictured to the far left is Francisco "Franco" Chavez who also served at St. Francis when he was a postulant two years ago. He, too, was well known to many parishioners for his home visits. He now serves in Atlanta, Georgia.]

El 22 de julio, Leo Rojas [segundo por la derecha] profesó sus Primeros Votos en la Orden de los Capuchinos. Leo se ofreció como voluntario en St. Francis el año pasado cuando era postulante. Fue muy querido por sus visitas a las personas confinadas en sus hogares. Deseamos a Leo lo mejor en su vida capuchina. [En la foto del extremo izquierdo está Francisco "Franco" Chávez, quien también sirvió en St. Francis cuando era postulante hace dos años. Él también era bien conocido por muchos feligreses por sus visitas domiciliarias. Ahora sirve en Atlanta, Georgia.]
